

You

my phone operating so that I could record the call. I have a brain injury and I have to, um, be able to refer

Participant

Oh.

You

back. Sorry, I'm calling to close my account with you guys.

Participant

Mm, okay, uh I can definitely assist you with that one, sir, uh but 1st may know who am I speaking

You

Robert

with?

You

Hansen, H-A-N-S-O-N, the company is Grizzly Medicine.

Participant

Okay, thank you for that, Mr. Robert and also can you provide me the pen or passcode on the account, please?

You

557300

Participant

Okay, 557300 okay Thank you so much for that one moment, please let me just pull up the account. Okay. And would it be okay, sir? if I'll send you a one time bin to your phone line ending in 9088.

You

Yeah, that's fine.

Participant

Okay, perfect. Well, so once you receive the code after Robert, uh, read it out loud to

You

Okay.

Participant
me, okay?

You
It

Participant Perfect.

You is.

Participant
There you go.

You 802198.

Participant
98 it will keep perfect. Okay, let me just pull up the account. So may you know the reason why you wanted to uh close your account here at T-Mobile uh

You
I.

Participant Roberts?

You
I'm very dissatisfied with y'all service. You can address any concerns about that? To Samantha in the accessibility department or Erica, with the executive team.

Participant Mm.

You
If you do speak to Samantha,

Participant

Mm.

You

tell her, she was single-handedly the best part. of being a T-Mobile

Participant

Mhm.

You

customer. And you can tell Erica. I hope she rots in hell, and so does the entire 1st responder community, and the disabled community that she repeatedly discriminated against and disrespected.

Participant

Oh, uh. I can do with response. So regarding that the satisfaction is that like uh for the services here at T-Mobile or is that uh personally from the representative named Erica?

You

It is from the manager at the T-Mobile experience store in Fort Worth, Texas. It is from Terry on the uh, accessibility team. who violated my

Participant

Mhm.

You

legal rights, by asking me

Participant

Mhm.

You

what my disability exactly was, in her words, that I recorded. It was in your legal and executive team, repeatedly trying to down talk me and tell me I didn't know what I was talking about and don't about and understand don't understand my rights. my As rights an as American, an American, as as a disabled a individual, disabled or individual, the or fact the that fact maybe that maybe I actually I did actually develop did novel develop technology novel technology that they're that just they're too just fucking too stupid fucking to stupid to understand. And they proceeded to tell me that I was wrong and did not understand it. No, I have a brain injury. I am not unintelligent. I'm actually extremely intelligent and highly educated. That's why for 17 years. I was trusted to go into people's homes on their worst days and save their lives. That's why for 17 years, I trained others to do the same. And that's why even in retirement with a brain injury. I'm still trying to contribute and help people. And They wanted to tell me I was stupid and didn't understand. And weren't even willing to explain any of it to me, just talk down to me, and make fun of me the whole time.

You
Yes, I am.

Participant
Okay, thank you so much for patiently waiting, sir Robert. So, I OAD have here, Mark, one of our specialized expert, now he's going to help you when it comes to your concern to your account right here. okay

You Okey-dokey. Have a good day.

Participant
You do, sir, um, Sir Robert, and again, I do apologize for that experience that you got, and I'll be transferring the call now to, uh, Mark. okay? Hello Mark you can take over the call now All right. thank you colleague. Hi sir Robert How are you

You I'm

today?

You
good. How are you?

Participant
I'm doing good too. Thank you for asking, and uh by the way, again, my name is Mark, one of the specialist experts who is in ball and we'll be assisting you today as well. All right. So, um, for this, uh, before we proceed, uh, can you please help me confirm your best callback number to call?

You Uh, 682465 or

Participant

Mhm.

You

I'm sorry, 469-9088.

Participant

Mhm. All right. Thank you so much for your dad. All right. So, um, for this, uh, sir, uh, Robert. I was advised of my colleague that uh you are requesting to cancel the watch line on the account and this is the line ending 1420. Now, um, I can see here when I double check, there's a promotion or, uh, yeah, there's a affected promotion on your account, specifically for the watch line because there's an active, uh, EAP device, which is the Apple Watch SE

You

I'm

3rd,

You

sorry,

Participant

uh,

You

there's a what?

Participant

and I think it's here, there's an active equipment installment plan or EAP device on your account, that is, uh, the I, uh, the Apple SE. And uh currently uh you are taking advantage of promotional discount every month from T-Mobile of $8.38. Now, um here's the thing, sir. If ever we proceed with the cancellation of this online. Uh the uh promotion might be compromised. Uh meaning to say the promotion discount will automatically uh remove on the account and uh instead of uh getting a promotional discount of

You

Sir, sir,

Participant
the uh device.

You
stop. I'm leaving your organization. My business will not do business, with your business, anymore. I don't care if the promotion is canceled. Once I confirm, my account is closed, and I will not be receiving additional charges from your organization. I'll go drop the watch in the iPhone 15 off at the store over in Westworth Village. But seeing as I'm the one that was discriminated against and harassed by employees of your organization from the local store all the way up through the executive team. I just don't really have that much trust for y'all at the moment.

Participant
Well, apologies to hear that, sir, when it comes to that, uh, you know, uh, what happened, uh, about that. Uh, but I just want to confirm, sir, when was that happen, so that I can uh, also report that as well.

You
I've reported it multiple times. I'm also going to report it to the Department of Justice, the FCC and the FTC and the state of Texas. It happened ranging between June 25th of this year and about a month

Participant Okay.

You
or maybe month and a half ago, I think was the last time I spoke to Erica Marez with the executive team.

Participant
So uh that's happened at the store directly or uh outside.

You
Sir. It has happened with multiple people throughout your organization, both at the local store level and up through your

Participant
Mhm.

You executive team. Do I need to say that more clearly? Multiple

Participant

Well,

You

times. I've

just to hear that's true.

You

had people inquire about my health problems, which by federal law is illegal to do. But it was done. And then I was told that I didn't understand. The ADA and how it applies to me and this can this situation. Because of that. I

Participant

Mhm.

You

was harassed and treated like shit by my own family because they're convinced that I don't understand it. Well, I recently got confirmation that I do understand my rights within Title 3 and section 504. I showed that to my family. They've backed off. I've gone to another carrier now who actually wants to work with their customer base and I'm done with you guys. I will never do business with your organization again. I don't care what the offer is because I repeatedly. Told every single person that harassed me and discriminated against me. That I was not asking for anything for free or for a handout. That I was simply asking. As outlined within the ADA for a reasonable modification to your deposit policy because I was injured in the line of duty, and I ended up homeless for 33 months waiting for federal disability approval. I had developed novel technology and was monitoring my own health with that technology, and it required very specific hardware. I've had employees try to explain to me how a watch SE is just as capable as the watch ultra series. I've had employees explain to me how an iPhone 15 baseline or a 17 E or no, I'm sorry, a 16 E is more capable than the Pro Max series. After calling them out on their bullshit every single time because I actually do know this technology. I then proceeded to outline exactly why. I needed the hardware components I did. And that I was not asking for it for free, that I was more than happy to pay the monthly installments like every single other person. I only asked that my disability, and by extension my credit because of my disability, not be used to prevent me from continuing what I was doing with monitoring my own medical health, and developing technology to help EMS providers around the nation, because I was a paramedic for 17 years. I was a field training officer. I sat on disaster preparedness committees. I taught, I spoke. I had a great career prior to my injuries. I still have every bit of that knowledge that can help people. And I had found a way to do it. Your company wanted to hardline me and be dickheaded-ish about a deposit. On a phone. While they sit there on their website and in your commercials professing how much they love their disabled community in their 1st responder community. I'll tell you the exact same thing I told Erica last time I talked to her. Respectfully, as a

Hello.

You

disabled American, and as a paramedic of 17 years, I feel absolutely 0%. of any of that love or support that attracted me to your organization originally. This company has done nothing. But cause pain in my life. And I do not want to associate with it ever again. You guys are the worst part of my year this year. And that's a goddamn shame because I was excited to come here. You guys are brilliant. You're partnering with starlings. I'm developing a platform for emergency medical services. Why would I not want to be on your service? Because of Erica and because of the manager at the T-Mobile experience store in Fort Worth. And because your legal team felt that a deposit was more important, than somebody who gave great. Reasons, compelling arguments and evidence. As to why this was not a luxury item. These were medical monitoring tools.

Participant

Well, I agree with your um, uh, feedback as well, sir, uh, when it comes to that, uh, information, and thank you for sharing us well, sir. But uh for this sir uh on uh behalf of T-Mobile we since we apologize about what's happened and uh I know that uh you are frustrated about

You

You
I'm incensed. enraged, and I know when I've been discriminated against. Because I've dealt with it my whole life. When you grow up queer in the DFW North Texas area, you know what discrimination feels like real well. Believe me, I do. And I know I have been. And I will make sure that other people find out.

Participant
Well, um I agree with that, sir. I uh, also uh, I was being emulated before, but uh, since uh, you know, this is um, not uh, correct and this is not right, it's part of the law as well. So, uh, for this, uh, on May end, I can, uh, complete your request, uh, and come to, uh, cancel the watch line on your

I.

You
too. It sucks. It does. It really does. That's not discrimination. Discrimination

Participant Nice.

You
is a very different thing, and it's a crime.

Participant
Yes, sir, I understand. Thank you for that and uh also um for this um to uh computer class, I'll go ahead now and uh cancel the watch line on your account and uh apologize to all about what happened to uh you know uh to the issue before and I will uh also arrange this our higher ups uh so that they are aware about what happened to your um journey at the store and uh also um so that they can further investigate what happened.

You Wonderful.

Okay? And uh we are not also. Um, sorry, think that's kind of behavior, uh, when it comes to our valued customer, and uh, also, since you are, you are in a business, and uh, we're also, uh, sad that you are canceling your line with us and pointing out to a different career. But uh we uh totally respect that if that's the um decision uh we'll go ahead and repeat this.

You Thank

Participant
okay? So

You
you.

Participant
allow me to please this call hold for a minute or 2 I'll just go ahead and complete your

You Fuck.

heart, now. My darling, let's try. To see eye to eye. And let have a heart. F my home in New York, Virginia, California, on my mind. Got all that greyhound and rode it into rallying on a draws, Caroline. Stopping Charlotte. But we bypass rocking, we never were in any lane. We was tiny miles out of that man, I was fired some down. Rolling out of Georgia Day. At some mode of trouble of turning to a girl halfway across Alabama. That hound broke down and lived the soul, spent it in, down, down, burning. Right away, up on me, a through train, take it right across the Mississippi. And I was on that special fire out of Birmingham. Hello, sorry, Albert. Thank you so much for we should be waiting on the line and apologies for the hold. So, um, with regards to your request, sir, I have successfully processed the cancellation of your watchline on the account, and also, you will be notified about the confirmation of this cancellation of this line, and uh, also, sir, before electrical. I just wanna ask if we have any other concern, clarification that I can help you with.

You

No, actually, I wanted to clarify with you. I know that, yes, I am incredibly upset and. Completely

Participant

Mhm.

You

understandably so, I do not, however, want you to think that my feelings towards T-Mobile are directed towards you. They are absolutely not. You have

Participant

Mhm.

You

been great. You've been very prompt, kind, and understanding, and I want to thank you for that very, very much. I will absolutely criticize bad service every time because it's unacceptable

Participant

Uh-huh.

You

in my profession. However, I will also be the Participant

Mhm.

You

1st to recognize and thank good service, and I thank you for yours.

Participant

Thank you for that and appreciate your feedback as well. Actually, I use uh to uh failure um situation right now, and uh, especially I used to be a customer outside my job, so, um, it's, you know, it's everywhere, uh, uh, we're being humiliated or, uh, being um, you know, um.

You

Unfortunately, in my profession and I'm sorry, but when you do a job like I did for as many years as I did, that kind of shit doesn't

Participant

Mhm.

You

fly. I don't get to go to work and treat people like shit. I don't get to go to work and discriminate against people. I don't get to go to work and make people feel inferior or unintelligent. I have to go to work and I have a mandate. That I treat people with dignity

Participant

Mhm.

You

and compassion, and if I don't, I can actually lose my ability to do my job, not as a company, but

Participant

Uh-huh.

You

as in they will yank my credentials that allow me to function. I'm sorry, but considering most people who thank me for my service while in line at McDonald's. Tell me how, you know, they just couldn't do my job? Well, okay, yeah, I guess not, because I don't treat people like crap. Just because I want to. That's horrible. And I hate that I'm having to leave a company on these grounds, that I'm really that dissatisfied with service, that I'm choosing to break ties with you. It's not cool. It sucks. And y'all should have done better. And yeah, the world's shitty and people do that. But you shouldn't. You're not supposed to. You say that you don't on your website, and yet, all evidence very much points to the contrary. So I would advise that y'all do better next time. Because if this happened to me, Who else? Is it happening too? Because I'm not that special.

Participant

Yes, sir. I understand that and I also apologize against her about what happened and uh also sir uh yeah for this. I just wanna uh confirm, sir, again, if uh do you have any other concern or

You

No,

Participant

clarification, if I

You

you

Participant

let

You have

Participant

you

You a great

Participant

You

day.

just to make sure. Thank you so much for that, sir. and I hope that your previous experience, one of that, how we resolve your uh your concerns today. I know that uh you're uh mad uh with uh the service that you've uh had before, but I think sorry uh like I mentioned earlier, I'm not already think that kind of behavior. I will also uh file the uh you know that report to our higher apps about this and uh so that they are aware about uh this issue or uh the previous issue

You

Wonderful.

rather. okay? And uh also sir. Thank you. and also, sir, before I let you go I just wanna ask with the level of service that I just provided to you today. Can we still contact whenever have satisfied customers?

You

You're joking, right? You didn't just ask me that. Have a good day, man. Bye bye.
